Game Notes...Tonight's game was played in oppressively humid conditions at the Common....both Bison homers were of the inside the park variety...James Arredondo hit his team leading 3rd of the season while Bison rookie Cory Burrall hit his second....The ageless Al Miller held up well in the heat at the Common....Maria Batista had a long night behind the plate which was made more difficult when she took a Victor Ramirez backswing off the squash in the late innings...a woozy Batista was helped to the bench by concerned members of both teams but Maria shook off the injury and showed what a true gamer she is....the Dark Horses showed that they will be an excellent addition to the MSEL....ex-Bison Scott Manning did a nice job putting together what is a very competitive team....the Dark Horses debuted rather sharp looking threads for the game as well...they were an Oakland Raider-like black and silver...another ex-Bison, A.J. Alaluf also is with the Dark Horses...A.J. appeared in one game for the Renegades last season....James Turnbull made his 2012 Bison debut...Turnbull was rumored during the off season to be heading to the Dark Horses but made the wise choice to remain a Renegade...The Renegades will next play on Friday June 29th at Foss Park in Somerville when they take on the Greenway, another new MSEL team....ex Bison Chris White tweeted before the game that he is close to re-joining the Bisons
